NEW YORK 18, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Editor:

In his speech of June 26, 1957 to the National People's Congress in Peking, Chou En-lai, Chinese Communist Premier, said:

"we must first of all make clear the definition of 'the people.' At the present stage, the word 'people' refers to the various nationalities. . . patriots of all walks of life that support socialism."

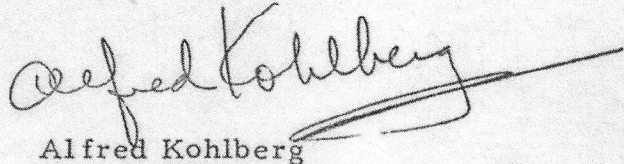

"The counterrevolutionary elements, reactionary forces . . . are our enemies who stand in hostility to socialism and in opposition to the 'people.' "

In short, those who support the Communists are "people." Those who do not are "enemies." Chou En-lai then said:

". . . the 'people' of all countries in the world, including the American 'people,' are conducting a peace movement which daily grows in scale."

The gathering at Pugwash, N. S., this week, called by Bertrand Russell and paid for by Cyrus Eaton, which called for peace by abandoning the U.S.A. and substituting World Government, thus spoke for the "people" as defined by Chou En-lai. No wonder Cyrus Eaton called for recognition of Red China in the Cleveland News of Jan. 4, 1957. He and Bertrand Russell qualify as "people."

Very truly yours,

Alfred Kohlberg

My Lord:

You will be interested in this letter that Mr. Alfred Kohlberg of New York City sent to the editors of all important newspapers in the United States. Kohlberg heads the so-called "China Lobby" and has enjoyed profitable business concessions from Chiang Kai-shek over the years. For obvious reasons, therefore, Kohlberg devotes his full energies to a constant propaganda campaign to try to restore Chiang to power.

Sincerely yours,

The Right Hon. Earl Russell
