

Where to Stay in NOVA SCOTIA

"PINEO LODGE"
PUGWASH
NOVA SCOTIA

A historic Nova Scotia Homestead now an up-to-date and comfortable
Lodge for Summer Visitors

PORT MOUTON, QUEENS COUNTY

Wobamkek Beach Summer Resort. Major J. W. Willis. 7 cottages, all with open fireplaces and verandahs. Golf course in front of cottages. 300 yards from sand beach. Sport fishing from 2 to 5 miles. Big game hunting only few miles by car. Bird shooting—partridge, woodcock, duck and geese. Boats and canoes available, no charge. Licensed guides supplied at $2.50 per day. Fresh fish a specialty on menus.

Scotia House and Camp Comfort. T. R. Wagner. 18 bedrooms. 1 cottage. Boats available at $2.50 per day; canoes at $1; Licensed guides supplied at $2.50 per day. Rate per day with board $2.50; per week $12.

Blue Nose Cabins at Goose Hills. H. C. Burgess. 2 to 4 miles from sand beach. Trout fishing, moose and deer hunting, blue wing and wild geese shooting. Boats can be arranged for deep sea and tuna fishing parties.

PORT WADE, ANNAPOLIS COUNTY

Maple Leaf Cottage. Mrs. Frank B. Mussells. 5 bedrooms. Rate per day with board $1.50; per week $7.

PUGWASH, CUMBERLAND COUNTY

Pineo Lodge. Mrs. H. A. Hillcoat, manager. 7 large airy double rooms, all with bath. The house now known as Pineo Lodge is one of Canada's historic homesteads and was erected more than one hundred years ago by Hon. Henry Pineo, whose name is associated with stirring episodes in Nova Scotian history. This interesting dwelling has been renovated as a thoroughly up-to-date Lodge, while fully retaining its fine old-world atmosphere. (See illustration on back cover page). Guests have the advantage of bracing sea air, excellent boating and warm salt-water bathing. The neighboring streams afford trout fishing and there are splendid opportunities for deep sea fishing in the bay. During the Autumn there is abundant duck and goose shooting along the shore. Pugwash has the situation and climate for one of the outstanding holiday resorts of the continent. Rates $3 to $5 per day; two persons 50 percent extra. Meals at the Pagweak, on the grounds of the Lodge; a la carte club breakfasts and luncheons served.

The Pagweak. A delightful Tea Room near Pineo Lodge. Distinctive Nova Scotian cooking. Tested milk and butter. Fresh eggs. Lobsters and other shell fish available. Prompt service given to motor tourists. Meals a la carte. Club breakfasts and lunches served.

Pugwash Cabins. R. D. MacNutt. Accommodation for 25 persons.

Elm Lodge. Mrs. S. E. Trenholm. 8 bedrooms. 3 cottages. Running water in house, electric lights. Lobsters served in season. Rate per day with board $3; per week $14.

Pineo-Wilsons. Mrs. C. C. Wilson. 5 bedrooms, bath. 5 cottages. Abundance of shade trees. Sand beach. Chicken and shore dinners a specialty. Home cooked food. No mosquitos. Rate per day with board $3 up; per week $15 up.

RIVERPORT, LUNENBURG COUNTY

Myrtle Hotel. L. M. Oxner. 14 bedrooms. Verandah. Rate per day with board $3; per week $14 and $16.

SABLE RIVER, SHELBURNE COUNTY

Tom Tigney Lodges. O. B. Goodwin. Six cottages, two with 6 bedrooms, one with 4 and one with 2. All have verandahs. 2 miles from sport fishing, 4 miles from big game hunting. Boats available at 50 cents per day, canoes at 75 cents. Licensed guides supplied at $2.50 per day. Cottages are equipped for self-service, with store in connection, also ice house. Rate per day $1 per person; per week $7 to $11.

SALMON RIVER, DIGBY COUNTY

Buena Vista. M. J. Foley. 20 bedrooms. Rate per day with board $2.50; per week $15.

A historic Nova Scotia Homestead now an upland
Lodge for Summer Visitors